

WKQX-FM, Q101, runs a syndicated program called AWARE: Positive Health Talk Radio every Monday from Midnight until 12:30 AM. It is a weekly radio show devoted to information about AIDS and HIV, among other topics, with hosts Chris DeChant and Hope Williams. Q101 also runs 6 Public Service Announcements a Month from Monday to Sunday 12A - 5A. Each receives 35 mentions a week or 140 a month for a total of 840 PSAs a month. Topics include national and local messages. Q101 donates to select charities each year. In 2004, Q101 donated to the 100 Club and Sheridan Carroll Food Pantry. Monies from various events throughout the year went to these charities. We have also donated time to the Gift of Hope and March of Dimes and Food Drives. Q101 air staff and managers frequently devote time to speaking to various groups of students and organizations for people interested in Radio Broadcasting. Q101 runs a Local 101 show every Sunday night from 9pm - 10pm that showcases and promotes local bands and also interviews them on the show.
